

California STD/HIV Prevention Training Center

Is Seeking Panelists for Its Upcoming HIV Video Series

HIV: At the Crossroads

"This is our time, this is our deciding moment, together we are greater than AIDS." Phil Wilson, President and CEO of The Black AIDS Institute, International AIDS Conference, Washington DC July 2012

"We have had a terrific start, we have a long way to go, but our knowledge in that start will inform where and when and how we finish." Eric Goosby MD, US Global AIDS Coordinator, International AIDS Conference, Washington DC July 2012

The California Prevention Training Center (CAPTC), a program of UCSF, is seeking a select group of panelists (HIV specialists, doctors, researchers, and educators) to share their expertise, thoughts and visions as a part of an upcoming video series entitled HIV: At The Crossroads. This series will highlight critical and timely issues within HIV care, community mobilization and research.

The video series will be showcased in a variety of educational and promotional venues and will be available as enduring material on the CAPTC's public YouTube channel.

We are seeking two (2) to three (3) on-camera panelists for each video in the series. The topics to be discussed are:

- 1. "Exploring the Impact of Health Disparities and Inequalities on MSM of Color"
  - Scheduled production date April 10, 2013
- 2. "Positive Sexual Health; Building Sensitivity for Practitioners who serve HIV positive MSM"
  - Scheduled production date April 22, 2013
- 3. "The Next 30 years of HIV: What We Can Do From a Structural, Community, and Provider Level to Make a Difference Going Forward"
  - Scheduled production date May 08, 2013

If you are interested in being a panelist for any of the topics in HIV: At the Crossroads or would like more information please contact Duran Rutledge at duran.rutledge@ucsf.edu or (510) 625-6001.
